Daejeon is Korea's fifth largest city and is renowned for being Asia's Silicon Valley with about 30 research and development institutions. Daejeon has the highest concentration of researchers with more than 7,000 PhD holders working in the city.

Additional information

Proof of finances for dual degree students – According to the Korean government regulations, all international students completing a degree in Korea must show proof of finances with a bank certificate with a minimum equivalent of $18,000 USD (or equivalent). This document is required for all dual degree students, and does not apply to exchange or study abroad students.

English language requirements

BBA: TOEFL IBT 61, IELTS 5.5, or equivalent (B2 level according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages)

MBA: TOEFL IBT 79, IELTS 6.5, or equivalent (B2 level according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages)

Scholarships - Tuition scholarships for dual degree students are available. Scholarships are merit-based on the English score and academic GPA, and may range from 30 to 100%. They are awarded for the duration of one semester and renewable depending on the student's academic performance. Scholarships do not include stipend.

Accommodation - the school policy requires students to stay at the residence provided by SolBridge for their first semester in South Korea. BBA students share a double bedroom with a private bathroom. MBA students live in a single studio accommodation. Following the completion of their first semester, students will have the option to choose their accommodation. As of Spring 2017, the cost of accommodation per semester is USD 683 for BBA students and USD 1,050 for MBA students.

Breakfast - breakfast is provided at the school residence for BBA students. Breakfast is a compulsory component of our package, and costs a fee of USD 252 per semester.

General living expenses - meals in South Korea are generally very affordable. Meals at the school cafeteria cost around 4 USD (3 euros). Meals outside campus may range from 5 to 12 euros. Personal expenses depend upon the student's lifestyle. The school recommends students to plan monthly living expenses around USD 350 – 400 (about 325 – 375 euros).

Expenses for the initial week in South Korea - some additional payments around USD 300 might be needed during the first week in Korea (airport shuttle bus, medical check-up, personal care products, residence security card, Local ID card registration, etc...).

Part-time job opportunities - working part-time is allowed for dual degree students after completion of the first semester. According to the Korean government's regulations, students can work on or off campus up to 20 hours a week. Exchange or study abroad students are not allowed to work in Korea.
